

Title IID Grants
Enhancing Writing Instruction Through Technology
Google Tools
February 4, 2012
Agenda

Session 1: (9:00-9:10) – Welcome/Sign In/ Creating a Gmail Account for Professional Use

Session 2: (9:10-9:25) Success Stories

Session 3: (9:25-9:50) –Copyright Friendly Images

- The necessity of using them
- Resources
- Using google
- Filtering Blog Sites

Session 4: (9:50-10:05) – Overview/Benefits of Google Docs

- Why Google Docs?

Break: 10:05-10:15

Session 5: (10:15-10:35) – Creating a Form to Embed on Blog

Goal: Develop a form that relates to a topic that you are teaching this upcoming week. Post it to your blog and have students respond this week. Good to use for assessments or gathering data.

Session 6: (10:35-11:30) — Using Google Docs to Plan an Instructional Unit for the Tech Fair

Goal: Develop a unit that correlates with your curriculum that incorporates as many of the following: the blog, Comic Life, story books, Livescribe Pen.

- Open a new document
- Share the document with me: kelly.gallagher15@gmail.com
- If working collaboratively (with another teacher that teaches the same grade), share the document with them and collaborate on that one document.

Session 7: (11:30-12:15) – Share your lesson with at least one other person in a similar grade. Make comments on the project (improvements, suggestions, merits).

Session 8: (12:15-12:45) Using Livescribe with Google Docs

- Using Connectors to share document to Google.

Session 9: (12:45-1:00) Surveys, Next Steps

